Taipei District Prosecutors Office Conducted A Drug

Sweep During July 4-6

In order to cooperate with the nationwide drug sweep hold by the Taiwan High Prosecutors Office, Chief Prosecutor of our office called an anti-drug meeting of the authorities to set up a series of strategic approaches to drug control. The positive outcomes of the strategies devised by our office, aligning the Prosecutors, the Police, and the Customs to launch and to effectuate the anti-drug campaign together with drug enforcement, are elaborated as follows:

1. Suppressing the arrogance of the nightclubs who supplying with drugs;
2. Collaborating with the police to crash the networks of drug supplying;
3. Collaborating with the Customs to stop the drugs at the borderline;
4. Applying pretrial detention to drug dealers;
5. Visiting and caring for drug addicts on probation to encourage detoxification, and procuring drug dealers network information through visits.

Our office considers now is the threshold of anti-drug war. We will continuously combat drugs, suppress drug crimes, build up a drug-free country, safeguard people's safety, and protect social security.
