Investigation regarding the search of a civilian residence by the Taipei Military Police

March 6, 2016, media reported that the Taipei Military Police Station illegally searched the residence of Mr. Wei for the reason of selling confidential documents. Chief Prosecutor Tsai's of our office therefore instructs Head Prosecutor Terng, Jih-ping, the leading prosecutor of Major Crime Task Force, to be in charge of investigation of possible illegal research. After a preliminary understanding of the case and jurisdiction, Prosecutor Terng established a case later the same day.

The investigation focuses on the illegality of search process, the decision making process and case reward. Our office thus summoned witnesses including military investigator officer Major Huang, Captain Zou, Master Sergeant Sheng and Luo from Taipei Military Police, Lieutenant Colonel Wu, Major Tsai and Huang, Sergeant Chang from Military Security Office in Ministry of National Defense, and Lieutenant Colonel Yu from Political Warfare Bureau in Ministry of National Defense, and aforementioned Mr. Wei. We also request to review related video tapes of the search process and other sites and files regarding case reward. We will continue to look into witnesses' testimony and evidence efficiently to clear up the fact as soon as possible.
