Representative LO of ZODIC Light World Tech. Inc. (兆良科技股份有限公司) is Indicted in Violations of the Company Act and the Securities and Exchange Act

Conclusion of the Investigation

1. 19 defendants including Mr. Lo are indicted with, among others, false capital for company, security-issuing fraud and unauthorized operating securities business under the Company Act and the Securities and Exchange Act.
2. The other six defendants including Mr. Lin who are suspected for the above criminal offenses are not prosecuted.

Summary of the Indictment

1. In June or July of 2011 when ZODIC was founded in LongTan area, Taoyuan City, Mr. Lo and two other defendants made false certificates of capital while registered to the authority, the Ministry of Economic Affairs, and consequently caused incorrect registration and wrongful records that jeopardized the authority management in companies.
2. Continuingly from 2012 to July 2014, Mr. Lo conspiring with other 17 defendants further made numerous false statements, such as ZODIC having cooperation or partnership agreements with some universities and EU or Honduras corporations, and thus successfully boosted public investment in ZODIC and company stock prices.
3. Total amount of illegal gains exceeds 249 million NT dollars, where six defendants including Mr. Lo each gained from 20 plus millions to 60 plus millions. 273 investor victims are found in the stock-issuing period between July and August, 2014.
