

The investigation into the responsible person and other suspects of HO-X United Industries CO, LTD violating Securities and Exchange Act case is ongoing by the Prosecutor in Taipei District Prosecutors Office.

The 29 suspects, including the responsible person and the former responsible person of HO-X United Industries CO, LTD(和○聯合實業股份有限公司) tried to hype the company's stock and input illegal transaction by continuously ordering or reporting a series of trades under one's own account or under the names of other parties, and tried to complete the corresponding transactions with the intent of creating an impression on the centralized securities exchange market of brisk trading in a particular security from May, 2013 to February, 2015. After gathering proof since May 1st, 2015, the Prosecutor Hsiao-Ya Chung who is belong organized crime and corruption (eradicating) panel had investigators from the Taipei City Field Office and the northern region working station, Investigation Bureau, Ministry of Justice hold 15 search warrants which were signed by a judge to conduct a search for the suspects' residences and office in Taipei City, New Taipei City and Taoyuan City on May 20th, 2015 and summoned 31 suspects and witnesses in order to clarify the relevant facts in this case later.