I. Office building renovation project of Bo Yi Building

In view of the fact that the office building of Intellectual Property Branch, Taiwan High Prosecutors Office and Taipei District Prosecutors Office are not enough for use. Upon Ministry of Justice's persistent efforts, Executive Yuan agreed to appropriate Bo Yi Building (No. 164, Bo'ai Road, Zhongzheng District, Taipei City) to the above-mentioned units after Ministry of National Defense moved to Dazhi Boai Camp. Bo Yi Building was built in 1973. It is a five-story building with one basement floor. Due to insufficient earthquake resistance, it is old with many water seepage issues; air-conditioner with five major pipelines, fire-prevention refuge facilities, fire-fighting equipment and other construction items must be re-planned. The Project was rewarded to Taiyi Construction Co., Ltd. in July 2018 by NT$331,500,000 and the expected completion date is 15 November 2019. 3/F to 5/F of Bo Yi Building will be used by the Intellectual Property Branch, Taiwan High Prosecutors Office, while 1/F and 2/F will be used by the Office. The Office planned to have Enforcement Section, Counseling Room, Taiwan After-care

Association, Association for Victims Support, the Prosecutors Association and other units at 1/F of Bo Yi Building, while having the Accounting Office, Personnel Office, Probation Office, Assistant Probation Officer Room, Intern Judge Office and other sections at 2/F. Upon completion, the office building shortage issue of the Office will be solved, while saving huge amount of rent required for renting office building and creating convenience in business contact.
