Taiwan Taipei District Prosecutors Office held the anti-bribery campaign of "Rehabilitation Send Warmth, Love in the Cat Cable, Shamrock Market" and "Striving to Investigate Bribery"

To assist the rehabilitated persons to reintegrate into society, Taiwan Taipei District Prosecutors Office and Taiwan After-Care Association Taipei Branch will join with the Yuanta Cultural and Educational Foundation and Taipei City Private Dongsan Social Welfare Charity Fund, the Taipei Maokong Leisure Industry Community Development Association, the Taipei MRT Maokong Cable Car, etc. cooperated to handle the "Rehabilitation and Love at the Maolan Clover Market Activity" at the Taipei MRT Mao Cable Station on Sep. 23, 2022.

Acceptance is the best help, participation is concrete action. The market stall was settled by 3 rehabilitation shops which are "Dream-Come-True" loan cases of the Taiwan After-Care Association Taipei Branch. In addition to being smooth and not bitter, "Fu. Coffee CO" has a sweet aftertaste, and the manual temperature of "less oil and sugar", "without adding a drop of water and chemical additives", except for the slightly sweet and happy "Mr. Aigno" egg rolls, as well as the mellow and mellow "Big Brother Braised dishes" and other rehabilitation persons' products, not only show the achievements of rehabilitated persons' entrepreneurship but also integrate into the local community. The rehabilitated persons' products are strictly supervised by the Taipei Branch, and all sales are also earned by rehabilitated persons. We hope that people will accept and participate more, and send positive energy and warm messages to the rehabilitated persons, so that they can feel the support and recipient of the public, and increase their family income for effective recovery and social integration.

In addition, elections for local public officials will be held on November 26 at the end of the year. Therefore, this event also cooperated with the Taipei Honorary Probation Officers Association to carry out anti-bribery election campaigns. In addition to educating the public about the right concept of anti-bribery elections, Taiwan Taipei District Prosecutors Office also announced that it has launched various investigative measures and is actively investigating bribery. If any illegal activity is found, it will make every effort to investigate and ask the public to make good use of the convenience of mobile phone evidence collection, have the courage to report it, and assist the government in maintaining clean elections.

On the day of the event, Chief Prosecutor Xing Taizhao of the Supreme Prosecutors Office, Chen Jiaxiu, Deputy Director-General of the Protection Department, Ministry of Justice, Xue Fengzhi and Yu Dongxiang, Honorary President of Taiwan After-Care Association Taipei Branch, were invited to attend and attracted local community people and tourists to participate. At the beginning of the event, the rehabilitated persons were presented with charity material boxes, and at the same time, certificates of appreciation were also issued to Yuanta Culture and Education Foundation, Dongsen Charity Foundation, Taipei MRT Corporation, and Maokong Leisure Industry Community Development Association, Ralford Co., Ltd., etc., to appreciate them for their care and employment assistance for the rehabilitated persons. At that time, an anti-bribery election campaign was held. The attendees attend the whistleblower hotline 0800--024-099 with balloons to appeal to the public to report election bribery. The attendees and the general public actively purchased products made by rehabilitated persons. In addition, the event was also interspersed with anti-bribery elections awards, saxophone performances, and wonderful performances by the teachers and students from the Department of Performing Arts, Liming College, Taipei Sports University, and Normal University. It was entertaining and established a correct concept of the rule of law, and it also helped the public care about the rehabilitated persons and let them feel the warmth and support from society.
