In the case of trespassing on the top floor of Taipei District Prosecutors Office and hanging a flag on December 16, the accused has already appeared in the case and has been interrogated by the prosecutor

On the afternoon of the 16th, Taipei District Prosecutors Office was intruded by unknown person, and a flag was hung on the top floor. The relevant surveillance video was reviewed on the same day to investigate the suspects, and the police were asked to assist in the investigation and evidence collection. Has grasped the identity of the specific object of intrusion into the building without reason. Yesterday (18th) afternoon, the person involved in the case took the initiative to come to the case. After the interrogation by the prosecutor, the history and motive of the crime have been clarified, and he is ordered to leave.

Prosecutors prosecute crimes on behalf of the country, handle cases objectively and independently in accordance with the law, and are not subject to external intervention or interference. We once again appeal to all walks of life to give prosecutors a pure space to handle cases, and call on the public not to express personal demands through irrational behavior. If there is any illegality involved, all will be held accountable according to law.
