Taipei District Prosecutors Office investigates the case of Zhao O Company's illegal sale of overseas funds

14 people including the person in charge surnamed Zeng were released on bail after interrogation

1. Prosecutor Wang Zhen-yuan of Taipei District Prosecutors Office (TDPO) investigated Zeng O ming, the person in charge of Zhao O Wealth Management Consulting Co., Ltd. In the case of a suspect in Article 107, Subparagraph 2 of the Securities Investment Trust and Consulting Act, Prosecutor Wang commanded Taipei City Field Division, Investigation Bureau, Ministry of Justice to search 17 places and notified 14 defendants to come to the case on June 8, 2023.

2. After interrogation, the prosecutor found that the relevant defendants were suspected of serious crimes, but there was no need for detention. In the early morning of today (9th), Zeng O ming, the person in charge of the company, was released on NTD 600,000 bail, the remaining 13 people, including managers, cadres, and salesmen, were released on NTD 100,000 to 500,000 bail respectively.

3. TDPO appeals to the public to be cautious when investing in financial products, and not to invest in unapproved overseas funds or other financial products to protect their own rights and interests.
