On August 29, 2023, Taipei District Prosecutors Office has officially announced the im. B platform case has been ended. The prosecutor indicted 31 individuals, including the defendant Zeng(曾○鋒), on charges related to alleged financial misconduct. The charges pertain to their suspected involvement in raising funds by disseminating false information through the im.B platform, specifically in connection with real estate claims and promissory notes. These actions are alleged to be in violation of banking laws.

Additionally, it is important to note that there have been media reports suggesting potential involvement of specific political figures in these activities. Furthermore, a separate investigation is currently underway regarding the defendant Zeng (曾○鋒), who is suspected of fraudulent fundraising linked to a municipal land redevelopment project. It is crucial to emphasize that these investigations are still ongoing and have not reached a conclusive stage. Authorities are diligently pursuing these cases.
